One of the Royal Parks group, Regent's Park is a huge green oasis at the centre of the city less than three miles from Trafalgar square.

Roadway's within the park are controlled by the Royal Parks themselves who also administer the numeral pay and display bays that line the roadways.

Unit base parking is also available within the park c/o London Zoo car park (details below)

The park is bordered to the west by the City of Westminster (www.westminster.gov.uk/filming) and to the east by the borough of Camden (www.camden.gov.uk).

The Royal Parks are pleased to be the first point contact for all filming enquiries that involve the park. Other stakeholders include; Canal – British Waterways, Regency Terraces – largely privately owned, freeholder Crown Estates, Period Street Furniture in surrounding streets – Crown Estate Pavement Commission. The west of the park is within the City of Westminster. The eastern quarter of the park is in the borough of Camden.
